ADJOURNMENT MOTION.

President: I have received notice of a motion from Mr. Joseph Kunju, Padiyara, for the adjournment of the House to discuss a definite matter of urgent public importance, namely, the situation caused by the publication of the letter of Sir James Taylor, Governor of the Reserve Bank of India, particularly with reference to the allegations contained therein against the Travancore National and Quilon Bank, to the Honourable Mr. Rajagopalachariar, Premier of Madras. This correspondence between Sir James Taylor, Governor of the Reserve Bank of India, and Honourable Mr. Rajagopalachariar is a matter on which this Government have no control and have no connection. It is a wellknown rule that adjournment motions can only be brought forward with regard to matters in respect of which Government have administrative control and authority. This matter is sub judice and the question would come up for decision before the Travancore Court of Law. On these two grounds namely that the Government have no administrative control or responsibility in respect of the matter which is the subject of the correspondence and that it is sub judice waiting for the decision of a court of law, I rule the motion out of order.

Mr. Padiyara Joseph Kunju (Nominated): സർ, ഇതിനെ സംബന്ധിച്ച ഒരു വിവരം എനിക്കറിയാനുണ്ട്. തിരുവിതാംകൂർ ഗവണ്മെൻറിനു ഇവിടത്തെ പണം ഇവിടത്തന്നെ ഉള്ളവർക്കു വീതിച്ചു കൊടുക്കുന്നതിനു അധികാരവും അവകാശവും സ്വാതന്ത്ര്യവും ഇല്ലേ എന്നറിഞ്ഞാൽ കൊള്ളാം.

President: Order, order. That question does not arise out of the adjournment motion. If proper occasion is taken for putting that question, answer will be given.
